

WESTCOM NETWORK

WESTERN COMMUNICATIONS CO-OPERATIVE has for some time now decentralised its resources to create an access network throughout the Western Suburbs. So if you live in the west,; here are the contact points:-

Yarraville Community Centre - 68-1673

Co-operative Office

Filing Cabinet and Library

Project worker can be contacted here Tuesday - Friday 9.30 - 5.00. Mac Gudgeon is his name, if he is not there the phone answering service will record a message or tell you where you can contact him.

There is one portapak available at Yarraville.

Turtle Video/Channel 4 Studio - 397-7349

Fully equipped 1/2" black and white studio, people willing to show you how it works.

Studio cameras supplied by Melbourne Access Video and Media Co-operative.

Editing system set up ready to go.

Other interesting innovations - e.g. famous 'Gary Shaw' 3-man camera crane.

One portapak is available

Either Heino, Gary or David are there most days 1.00 - 2.00 p.m. or Thursday and Friday 5.00 - 7.00 p.m. to take bookings

Western Region Education Centre - 314-3011 (Monday - Friday)

One portapak available for loan

One 3670 available for loan

Printing and copy facilities available to Co-op members.

Schools need not apply for vide equipment unless a high community component is on the action. Ask for Michael Bryan or Peter Andrews.

Altona City Library - 398-2255

One portapak available for loan.

Allan Dyall runs workshops on portapaks on a regular basis.

Library staff willing to organise tape replays in other libraries in Melbourne metropolitan area 3/4" cassette format using tapes from Melbourne Access Video and Media Co-op catalogue and local material.

Peter Fraser is the contact.

Laverton Community Centre

One portapak is available for loan in that area only.

Contact Jean Carlon.
